

A book in the library is of benefit to the entire Friendswood community. There is no better way to memorialize, honor, or recognize a loved one or special friend.

Please fill out the following information. If you indicate a subject interest, library staff will try to honor that request. The family of the deceased or the person honored will be notified of your gift.

The volume you select will be identified with a bookplate stating your name as donor, the name of the person memorialized or honored and the date.
